A SICK JUSTICE.

Stanley Matthews May Resign on Account of His Health.

JUDGE GRESHAM, OF ILLINOIS, HIS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.

Justice Matthews Took Cold During the Rough Inaugural Weather and His Condition Is Becoming Worse—New Schedule For Callers on the President—Other National News Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—It is reported that Justice Matthews will resign from the supreme bench, and that Judge Gresham will be appointed his successor before the present term of the court expires in May. The report, however, cannot be verified, on account of the present condition of Mr. Matthews' health.

Justice Matthews has had another of the relapses which have marked the progress of his illness. The justice has a complication of diseases, none of which alone are of a very grave character, but which, taken together, make quite a serious case, requiring close care and attention. The primary troubles are rheumatic attacks and impaired digestion.

Justice Matthews' system is very sensitive to changes of all kinds.

For eight weeks preceding the inauguration he showed a steady improvement in health, and his case progressed so favorably as to greatly encourage his family and Dr. Johnston, his physician. He was able to take and relish solid nourishment, such as beefsteak and potatoes, and to walk about the house with considerable freedom. During this time he received as many as six or eight callers daily, and conversed with each for quite a little while.

The terribly bad weather about the 4th of March, however, seemed to affect him, as it did many others. Notwithstanding that great care was taken to protect him from climatic influences during this bad weather, and that he was not permitted to go outside of two warm rooms, the justice caught cold, and this has been followed by several relapses, during which he has been restless and feverish. These attacks leave him weak and unable to relish his food, and are of course to be feared because of their tendency to still further reduce his strength and weaken his ability to recover.

Justice Matthews displays great fortitude and patience under his afflictions, and these qualities have proved of great benefit to him during his illness. It is said that the nature of his disease is such as to necessarily make the changes in his condition very slow, whether in the direction of better or of poorer health.

The Rush Goes On.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—There was no perceptible diminution in the number of the president's visitors. The rush began at 10 o'clock and continued till 12:30 o'clock, when the cabinet assembled for the regular semi-weekly meeting.

The president received three delegations during the morning, one from Georgia, headed by Gen. Longstreet, and other from Virginia, headed by John S. Wise, and the third from Washington, headed by Gen. Cresswell.

The latter urged the appointment of Mr. Thomas A. Somerville, as district commissioner, to succeed Mr. Webb. Gen. Goff, of West Virginia, called during the morning, and had a brief talk with the president, as also did Col. Fred. Grant.

Among the other callers who succeeded in securing an audience were Senator Spooner, Representatives McKinley, Morrow, McKenna and Thomas; A. M. Swope, of Kentucky; W. T. Durbin, of Indiana; J. F. Scanlan, of Chicago; Gen. Swaine, of New York; John S. Wise, of Virginia, and John W. Linck, of Indiana.

Breadstuff and Cotton Exports.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Breadstuff exports from the United States during February past aggregated in value $8,293,765, against $10,160,889, and for the first eight months of the current fiscal year $34,103,455, against $32,714,324 during the same months of the preceding year.

Cotton exports for February aggregated 452,149 bales, valued at $21,800,247, against 378,384 bales valued at $18,426,384 in February, 1888.

Exports of the principal articles of provisions during the past month aggregated in value $8,045,843, against $6,797,993 in February, 1888.

New White House Rules.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The president has issued a new set of rules for the routine of executive business. Senators and representatives will be received every day except Mondays from 10 until 12. Persons not members of congress having business with the president will be received from 12 until 1 every day, except Mondays and cabinet days. Those who have no business, but call merely to pay their respects, will be received by the president in the east room at 1 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Beef and Hog Exports.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total values of the exports of beef and hog products from the United States during the month of February, 1889, as compared with similar exports during the corresponding period of 1888, were: February, 1889, $1,462,421; February, 1888, $6,525,387. The values of dairy products were: February, 1889, $583,421; February, 1888, $274,606.

Senator Chance to Resign.

NEW YORK, March 16.—It was reported last night on what seems good authority that Senator Jonathan R. Chance, of Rhode Island, will on Monday next announce his resignation from the senate. The cause assigned is continued ill health.

Russell B. Harrison for Senator.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Russell B. Harrison is said to be a candidate for the United States senate from the new state of Montana. He will leave for Montana as soon as all important Montana appointments have been made.

THE SAMOAN COMMISSIONERS.

Personal Sketches of the Men Who Will Represent the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—George H. Bates, who was Thursday nominated to be one of the commissioners to negotiate with Germany regarding Samoa, is about forty years of age, a Democrat, and a warm friend of ex-Secretary Bayard. He is a son of the ex-chancellor of Delaware, and a lawyer of high standing in that state, being a member of the firm of Bates & Harrison, of Wilmington. Mr. Bates was appointed by Secretary Bayard as special commissioner to investigate our Samoan relations, and made a long and exhaustive report to the department on December 10, 1888.

William Walter Phelps and John A. Kasson, who were also nominated to be commissioners, have had long and distinguished congressional careers, and have acquired no intimate knowledge of diplomacy through service as United States ministers in Europe. Mr. Phelps having been minister to Austria in 1881, and Mr. Kasson minister to Austria in 1877 and to Germany in 1884.

A RAID ON ILLICIT STILLS.

Causes a Feud in Alabama—A Bloody Local War Expected.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 16.—Green and William Coffield, well-to-do farmers of Cleburne county, were supposed to own an illicit still. The still was captured and destroyed by revenue officers about two weeks ago, and it was rumored that George Brown, a neighbor of the Coffields, had led the officers on the raid. A few nights later Brown's barn and outhouses, with all their contents, were burned. He publicly accused the Coffields of the crime, and they started to hunt him up.

They met Brown in the road near his home and the fight began. It is said that the Coffields first opened fire on Brown. He returned the fire, killing William Coffield and badly wounding Green Coffield. The Coffields are very popular, and their friends have sworn vengeance against Brown, and a bloody local warfare is expected. None of the parties have been arrested.

Colored People to Erect a Monument.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 16.—The colored people of this city held a meeting last night and decided upon the erection of a monument in this city to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. William H. Seward, Charles Sumner, Wendell Phillips, John Brown, and other comrades and soldiers of the late war. The proposed cost of the monument is about $200,000, and the funds will be raised by donations from all the colored lodges and churches throughout the United States. The officers of the association are: President, Nathan Smallwood; secretary, W. H. Buckner; treasurer, James Young. The association has secured articles of incorporation.

Preparing for the Centennial.

NEW YORK, March 16.—William P. Walton, grand marshal of the Grand Army of the Republic in the city of New York, has established headquarters at the Union Square hotel for the purpose of organization of the Grand Army column for the Washington centennial, April 30. Applications will be received daily from any post throughout the country that may wish a position in the line of the column. The headquarters will be open daily until the day of the centennial between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m., when all business in connection with the matter will be attended to.

Razors and Shotguns.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 16.—On the Blanton plantation, near Greenville, Miss., Will Scott and a boy named George, both white, had a row with Isaac Woods, colored, and two colored women. The latter were armed with knives and razors, and Scott had a shotgun. He shot Woods in the leg, but the latter closed with him and cut his throat from ear to ear, from which Scott died in a few minutes. The boy George was also frightfully cut, but will live. Woods and the women are in jail.

Accident in a Mine.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 16.—Thomas R. Evans and John Walsh, miners, employed in the central shaft near Hyde Park, met with a terrible accident late Thursday evening while engaged in throwing down coal. While trying to detach a large slab of roof coal the mass slipped and fell upon them. Evans was crushed to death. Walsh suffered probably fatal injuries. Evans only recently arrived in the country. He leaves a wife and large family in destitute circumstances.

Candy Crusade.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—The different branches of the Women's Christian Temperance union have inaugurated a crusade against rock and rye candy and drops of wine cordial confectionery. They declare that these sweets make premature drunkards of school children; that their consumption is on the increase, and have appointed a committee to engage counsel to prohibit their sale. The dealers, however, laugh at the movement.

Lonsdale Still Marching Poleward.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 16.—Lord Lonsdale has arrived at a point in the Arctic circle known as the Ramparts, which is the last outpost of the Hudson Bay company. He and his party are well, and his lordship is in fine spirits. He will remain there a few weeks, and then pass on north. He does not expect to get back to civilization for nearly a year and a half.

Packing House Burned.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—Fire in the McCarthy Packing and Provision company's establishment, at 2 o'clock a. m., completely destroyed the building. A two-story wooden hotel adjoining was also burned. The loss is estimated at $40,000; only partially covered by insurance.

A Triple Hanging.

CHICAGO, March 16.—The Mail's Little Rock, Ark., special says: Willis Green, Anderson Mitchell and Dan Jones, colored, were hanged at Arkadelphia, Ark., for the murder of a negro preacher named Arthur Horton, May 21, 1888. The execution was private.

Mrs. Althouse Still Awake.

ATTICA, N. Y., March 16.—Mrs. Althouse has been awake for the last few days except for brief naps. Her longest sleep was eleven and one-half days. She is very feeble, but slightly stronger than when she came out of her last trance. There is no certainty as to how long she will live.

OUR NEW VESSELS

Work on the Machinery for the Concord and Bennington

PROGRESSING RAPIDLY AT THE QUINTARD IRON WORKS.

The Workmanship Employed and the Materials Used in the Construction of These Two Additions to the United States Navy Will Be the Best Possible to Secure.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The work on the machinery for the cruisers Concord and Bennington is getting along at a rapid rate, and its quality is certainly very satisfactory.

The boilers for the Bennington are practically finished, those for the Concord are but little behind, while the machinery for the Bennington needs but the arrival of the steel shafts from the West Point foundry to finish up the work. As soon as these shafts arrive and the final work on the Bennington's engine is completed the machinery will be taken off the present bed plates to make way for the setting up of the Concord's engine.

Chief Engineer Ashton remarked Thursday that the boilers had not yet been tested and he hardly thought they would be until the machinery was ready for moving. The boilers will either be tested right where they stand in the shop or they will be taken out into the street. In the testing of machinery for a certain strength cold water is put into the boiler, a fire lighted and the pressure is applied by the expansion of the water. In the case of the Yorktown's boilers the pressure given the boilers was 250 pounds, and this will very likely be the pressure applied to the boilers of the Concord and Bennington. The cylinders will be tested by hydraulic pressure, but, as in the case of the boilers, they will not be subjected to the ordeal until all the work for the cruisers in the shop is at an end. Of course the Quintard people are taking this risk on themselves, for some contend that the testing ought to be in keeping with the progress made in the work. But the Quintard iron works feel perfectly confident.

Much of the work, however, has been tested by the naval inspectors from time to time, being able to do this by the eye. In all cases where any flaw was discovered the piece was rejected, but as the builders have evinced as ready a desire to detect these flaws as the inspectors, the work has been greatly facilitated. The eccentric straps have given the most serious trouble at first. Piece after piece had to be made before a perfect one could be obtained, the great majority showing when pared down a little on the lathe, a crack near the base of the collar. If the work had been intended for a private concern much of the material would have been considered satisfactory, but for one of the new naval ships nothing but the very best work could be accepted.

MISER'S DEATH.

Although Possessing Thousands He Died Poverty and Squalor.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—On Friday last George C. Hayden, an old man of seventy-five years, died at a cheap German boarding house on Franklin avenue. All his surroundings indicated that he was very poor, but the public administrator, in examining Hayden's trunk, found a note inclosing a safe deposit key and containing the name "B. C. Payne, of Winslow, Me." The administrator yesterday visited the company's vaults and discovered more than $60,000 in cash, stock and bonds. Hayden had no relatives here, but is supposed to have some in Maine.

Not Difficult to Find Relatives Now.

PORTLAND, Me., March 16.—George C. Payne, the wealthy miser who died in St. Louis a few days ago, was a native of Winslow, Me., and a son of the late Daniel Hayden. His brother, Charles C. Hayden, still lives in the old homestead. The deceased leaves a number of nephews and nieces, children of two deceased sisters. Among them are Professor Julian D. Taylor, of Colby university, Waterville, and Jeff. Taylor, principal of the Waterville high school.

CLARA MORRIS' OPINION.

She Has Something to Say of the Society Actresses of To-Day.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—Clara Morris, in an interview, has this to say of society actresses:

"As to-day, theatrical managers seem animated almost altogether by the commercial instinct, when they can secure the services of some one who has created a scandal or who has otherwise aroused the curiosity of the public, they are satisfied. Is this fair? I think not. Why! I have seen young amateurs admitted for sensational reasons to a company whose presence necessitated the rehearsing of a scene thirteen times. Think of it.

"The parlor person may not be disgraced as a source from which dramatic material may be drawn. What censure is that the attributes essential to good breeding and morality are not those sought out by managers. Some of the society actresses may have elevated the stage; many others have not, but have merely succeeded in bringing discredit and opprobrium upon it."

Children Wed.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 16.—The youngest couple ever married in this state were made man and wife Thursday night at Keyser, Mineral county. Their names are, Chloe Poland, aged thirteen, and Joe Snow, fourteen. They have been lovers for four years, and after frequent entreaties received the parental consent to marry. The bride was attired in a short dress.

Mrs. Althouse Still Awake.

ATTICA, N. Y., March 16.—Mrs. Althouse has been awake for the last few days except for brief naps. Her longest sleep was eleven and one-half days. She is very feeble, but slightly stronger than when she came out of her last trance. There is no certainty as to how long she will live.

STEEL COMBINATION.

Three of the Largest Concerns in the United States.

CHICAGO, March 16.—The most important deal in the steel trade ever made in Chicago was announced Thursday, in the consolidation of the North Chicago Rolling Mill company, the Joliet Steel company and the Union Steel company. Negotiations at this end have been going on for two months, and are practically concluded. The news was kept very quiet, and only leaked out through trade circles.

The name of the new company has not been decided upon, but it will be an entirely new one. The capital will be $20,000,000, of which between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 will be issued for the cash now in the treasuries of the respective companies, and the balance will represent the valuation of the three plants. Stock in the new company will be distributed to the shareholders in the old ones upon the basis agreed upon in their consolidation. The combined works will form the largest steel company in this country, and will probably rank second only to the establishment of Krupp in Germany.

THE FALL RIVER STRIKE.

The Situation Unchanged—The Strikers Very Quiet.

FALL RIVER, Mass., March 16.—The strike situation is unchanged. The members of the state board of arbitration were in conference at noon with members of the weavers' executive committee, endeavoring to bring about a settlement of the strike. They have not yet secured a conference with the board of trade. There are no crowds on the street and the strikers are very quiet. Many operatives are taking advantage of the strike to go to Canada or to the old country on a vacation.

SATURDAY EVE., MARCH 16 1889

The Republicans can't bluff or scare Governor Wilson, of West Virginia.

There are "no flies" on the West Virginia Democrats. They have proved themselves equal to the situation.

There are 9,000 Ohio Republicans after consulships under the new administration, and "goodness only knows" how many more positions they want. It looks like they "want the earth."

HON. G. M. Thomas has just returned from Washington, happy that his Congressional labors have ended.—Vanceville Times.

"Labors?" Now, really what did the Judge do except file a few bills to pension some of his constituents?

With the solitary exception of the Ohio Missionary given a job in the Cabinet, President Harrison has not dropped so much as a crumb south of Mason and Dixon's line. The South is in, but not of, the Union.—Long-Isle Times.

This is the case only under Republican administrations. President Harrison is demonstrating to the world by the course he is now pursuing that his party is one of hate and sectionalism.

Towns throughout the State are organizing commercial clubs, and in every case the establishment of the club, it is said, has served to found some valuable public improvement or to originate some promising industry.

Richmond, Harrodsburg, Russellville and Bowling Green are last places heard from. By all means let's organize a commercial club, here and perhaps some effort will then be made to establish a shoe factory.

The Indiana members of the G. A. R. "demand a pension of eight dollars a month for all soldiers who served sixty days, and twelve dollars per month for all surviving widows of soldiers." As the Louisville Times remarks, the passage of such a law would not only dispose of the surplus but necessitate an increase in taxation. The pension appropriations have increased from $35,000,000 a year to about $80,000,000 in the past decade or so. And the end is not yet.

BROTHER DAVIS, of the Republican, was an interested witness of the inauguration ceremonies at Washington a few days ago, and here is what he says of the President who stepped down and out:

Whatever may be said of Grover Cleveland, it must be admitted that he behaved admirably during the closing moments of his official life. He returned from the Capitol to the White House in company with his successor, and held the umbrella which sheltered them from the merciless rain. Cleveland's composure and courtesy were subjects of general and complimentary remarks on all sides.

HON. WAYNE McVEIGH is pretty hard on the "bread and butter" brigade of Republicans. He says "many of these men are applicants for $3,000 and $4,000 positions, when they could not earn, and have not earned, a thousand dollars a year in any private enterprise at their respective homes."

Mr. McVeigh is a Republican himself, and was in Garfield's Cabinet. His assertion is no doubt true, but what has a fellow's earnings in previous years got to do with his office-seeking? Many of the ablest and smartest men haven't the knack of money-getting.

CAPTAIN CARK has met with the same fate General Goff did in their attempts to oust Mr. Wilson from the Governorship of West Virginia. The Supreme Court refuses to recognize their claims and Governor Wilson will continue to run things until the Legislature meets and decides the contest between Goff and Fleming. Commenting on this subject, the Enquirer says:

There is a just retribution in this situation. The Republicans, during the war period, violated the Constitution of the United States in dividing Virginia.

They thought thereby to secure a new Republican state. They were temporarily triumphant.

But ever since the war West Virginia has been Democratic, and resists the most gigantic efforts to capture, buy or steal it.

So the Republicans are mad.

But Wilson is still Governor.

Suggestion to Railroad Companies.

The afternoon train on the C. and O. road arrives here at 3 p. m. from Cincinnati.

The afternoon train on the Kentucky Central leaves about 1:30 p. m., reaches Paris at 2:30 p. m., and remains there until about 4 p. m., before leaving for Lexington, Winchester and Richmond. Can any one give any good reason why the managers do not hold the K. C. until 3:30 p. m., thus giving passengers from Cincinnati an hour and a half in Maysville and letting passengers on the K. C. remain in Maysville from 11:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m., and then make close connection at Paris with Lexington and Winchester trains.

Would it not also be a good plan for all omnibus lines to leave after the C. and O. arrives, at 2 p. m., and take the daily papers to all parts of the country? The business men should see to this.

THE ST. PATRICK'S CROSS.

Come raise me up, Alannah; lift me up a little higher,
And let the sunshine touch my bed and stream upon the floor.
Draw back the curtain further yet—let enter every ray—
And make the place look cheerful, child, for this is Patrick's Day.

Once more I'll welcome—tis the last for I fear;
I've had a long, long journey, but the end is drawed near.

Thank God, I've seen my share of years; but somehow, child, to-day,
My heart grows warm and youthful, and my thoughts are far away.

You know my old brown chest, asthore; go now and lift the lid,
And find therein a token, in the furthest

A little colored pasteboard cross; 'tis faded, quailin' and old,
And yet I prize it dearer far than if 'twere solid gold.

Long years ago I carried it across the rolling sea,
And time with all its changes, has not stolen it from me;

Just as you read the other day, and I believe it true,
That wherever we Irish go, God's Cross will follow, too.

And there are twined around it, child, what you can't understand—
Old memories of other days, of youth and native land;

As dry and withered rose-leaves speak of sunmers past and gone,
So like bright, cheery springtime in this little cross lies on.

It tells me of the happy time I first wore it, long ago,
Plinned here upon my shoulder. Ah! but child, you'll never know

How grand I felt that morning, with my cross and ribbon green—
God and country bound together—I was prouder than a queen.

How light and gay my spirit, as we children climbed the hill,
To seek for four-leaved shamrocks, while the dew was sparkling still;

While the blackbird sang his welcome, the primroses were nodding from each cozy hiding-place.

My little cross around you, oh! how many mem'rencies!
Old times, old scenes, old faces, to my mind this day you bring.

Come plait it on my shoulder, child; I'll forget my age and pain—
For Ireland and St. Patrick, let me wear it once again!

The weight of years may bend me, but my youthful soul will pray
My God be with the good old land and bless her honored day!

And round the cross entwining may the shamrocks ever be met,
That as she bore the burden, she may share the triumph yet!

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Superintendent Galbraith for 1888-89.

NO. 54—CEDAR HILL.

There are 27 pupils on roll with an average attendance of 19.

The trustees are Frank Lee, George Chinn and William Ginn, Messrs. Chinn and Lee have visited the school.

The house needs to be sold and a new one build in its stead. The furniture corresponds with the house.

This school is in charge of Miss Linda McIlvaine, a faithful and successful teacher. Miss McIlvaine, I must believe, owes much of her success to her love of the work. The teacher who loves the chidren and the school has already more than half succeeded. When we add to this untiring care, and that restless dissatisfaction that is ever looking to better and better results, as in the case of Miss McIlvaine, we always find the pupils interested and doing their best. The discipline is not of force, but order growing out of mutual love and respect between teacher and pupil, and active earnest work. This should be the aim of every teacher.

NO. 5—CORINTH.

There are 63 pupils on roll with an average attendance of 38. Blanche Campbell, Nannie Donaldson, Julie Donaldson and Lula Kennard have lost no time.

The trustees are George F. Campbell, J. S. Reeves and Isaac Manley. The house is good, but I confess that the furniture will not bear description. There should, by all means, be something done in this line by the trustees this year.

D. W. Clark taught this school. He is an energetic and successful teacher. Mr. Clark writes: "I have my pupils at work in good earnest, and I think we will accomplish much this term. The most important need of the school now is desks, that we could press the written exercises more closely."

The discipline of the school is good, and the paupers are well satisfied with Mr. Clark's work.

A Card From Mr. Charles B. Poyntz.

M. B. McFerrall and others—Gentlemen: In response to the numerous signed call upon me to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for member of the Legislature from Mason County, I desire to say that if it be the wish and will of Mason County Democrats that I should be their Representative, and should they so express themselves by tendering me said nomination free from contention, I will accept; but under no circumstances can I nominate either friends or myself, by engaging in any struggle or controversy.

With this distinct understanding and agreement, I subscribe myself your candidate,

BAPTIST CHURCH—There will be preaching at court house to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor of the Baptist Church, Rev. R. B. Garrett. The officers of the church earnestly request that all the members be present at the morning service as a matter of great importance will be presented for their consideration.

Subject of morning discourse: Phillipians, ii, last clause of the 12th verse. Subject of biographical lecture in the evening: "Balaam." The public cordially invited to attend these services.

In the Circuit Court at Paris a jury awarded Miss Cynthia Embry a verdict for $500 a year for eighteen years in her suit for bastardy against C. V. Higgins. Including costs, it will amount to over $20,000. The suit against Higgins for seduction, for $30,000, is yet pending. In default of $9,000 bail Higgins was remanded to jail.

SOMEBODY put a small mud-turtle, about the size of a silver dollar, in a bed at a Pineville hotel, and the stranger who was assigned to that room, on preparing to retire, caught sight of it. He at once resumed his clothes, remarking: "I expected to have a pretty lively night of it, but if they're as big as that I don't propose to get in with em."—Exchange.

"JIMMIE," the first horse trained by Dan Rice, died at Paris this week at the good old age of forty-two years. P. T. Barnum owned him three years, and when he was retired from professional duties he became the property of Dr. Campbell. Even in his extreme old age Jimmie could do several of his old tricks, and seemed delighted in performing them.

AN exchange notes the interesting discovery that the average length of time a clergyman receiving $12,000 a year is able to work without becoming a physical wreck and having to be sent abroad is seven months; the $10,000 preacher, eight months; he who receives $7,000 nine months; the $5,000 preacher, ten months, but the man on $500 salary works right along all the year round, and doesn't break down.

ANOTHER good man gone wrong. Information comes from Ashland that H. B. Butler, Auditor of the Chattahoochee Railroad, has disappeared, leaving a note saying that he was $3,000 behind in his accounts. The note also stated, in substance, that it would be useless to follow, as he would not be brought back alive. No definite cause is attributed for the shortage, but Butler is believed to have lost heavily in the recent Presidential election. An investigation may reveal other discrepancies.

He gave a very interesting talk to a large crowd last night on the subject of "Health and Disease." At the close of his discourse he psychoanalyzed a couple of persons mentally and physically, and repeated many of his wonderful experiments, to the surprise and amusement of the audience. His lecture to night will not be very long, as he will devote more time to the remarkable mesmeric experiments.

The Railroads.

The Norfolk and Western has petitioned for right of way through Ashland.

For February ninety-eight roads earned $20,824,068, an increase of $1,100,987, or 7.58 per cent. over February, 1888.

General Manager J. T. Harrahan, Superintendent I. G. Rawn and some other officials of the C. & O. passed East on a special yesterday afternoon.

I. G. Rawn, Superintendent of the Cincinnati Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Road, has appointed Henry Pierce Engineer Maintenance of War of the Cincinnati Division, to succeed G. W. Lewis, transferred.

A special from New York says C. P. Huntington, the railroad magnate, slipped away southward, a few days ago, to be gone, it was said, for two months. It has leaked out that his destination is Mexico, and there are rumors that his trip is connected with an effort to secure possession of the Mexican Central Railroad and thereby control all the traffic of Mexico with this country. The statement is made on good authority that he has on foot a transaction amounting to $30,000,000 or $40,000,000. The Mexican Central is about 1,300 miles long, running from El Paso, Tex., to the City of Mexico. There are branch lines from Agua Calientes to Tampico, on the Gulf of Mexico, and from Prudential to San Blas, on the Pacific Coast. At El Paso the road connects with the Southern Pacific Railroad, of which Leland Stanford and Huntington are the principal owners.

STOCK, FIELD and FARM.

Tobacco is selling as high as 12 cents in Robertson County.

Ripley buyers have bought a good deal of tobacco at prices ranging from 8 to 12 cents, fancy crops bringing more.

The Ripley Bee says: "The usual crop of tobacco will probably be put out in this locality, the restriction or abstention movement having gently expired on account of unfavoring influences."

DR. L. HERR, of Forest Park Stock Farm, Fayette County, has sold to W. C. France the celebrated stallion Allendorf, by Onward, dam Alma Mater, by Mambrino Patchen, and two fillies, one by Onward and the other by Mambrino Patchen, for $28,000.

CROPPER & CO., tobacco buyers here, say that there is some advance in the better grades of tobacco. They have some on hand that they brought from Louisville after having been shipped there from here and paid 10½ cents for it.—Lexington Transcript.

THE LONDON TIMES announces "the nailless horse shoe." The shoe is so adapted to the foot that the driver or teamster can put on the shoe within three minutes, and it will remain on as long as a shoe that is held on by the old method of nailing. This new shoe pinches the edge of the hoof at certain points, and is kept on mainly in this way, no nails being driven into the hoof.

MR. W. A. ANDERSON, of Greenfield, O., purchased from Colonel W. W. Baldwin Thursday his fine stallion Belgrano, sired by Onward, 2:25½, first dam Rosa Clay, dam of Capone, 2:28, by American Clay; second dam by Bay Messenger. Terms private. Mr. Anderson's visit in our city was very brief, but during his stay he made quite a number of friends who will gladly welcome his return.

THE TEMPERAMENTS.

Dr. Henry, the Psychologist, will lecture again at the court house this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Subject: "The Temperaments." His discourses are always entertaining.

He gave a very interesting talk to a large crowd last night on the subject of "Health and Disease." At the close of his discourse he psychoanalyzed a couple of persons mentally and physically, and repeated many of his wonderful experiments, to the surprise and amusement of the audience. His lecture to night will not be very long, as he will devote more time to the remarkable mesmeric experiments.

The Movements of Austria on the Servian Frontier.

OFFICIAL CIRCLES IN VIENNA CONTRADICT THE REPORT.

The Future of the Present English Government Rather Uncertain—The French Chamber Authorizes the Prosecution of Their Patriotic League Members—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, March 16.—The Buda-Pest correspondent of the Standard says: The Austrian government has ordered the Danube Negotiation company to hold as many steamers as possible ready for an emergency. Numerous tugs and barges have been concentrated within the last few days to enable troops from Nausatz to be transported to the Servian shore at a moment's notice.

Official circles in Vienna discredit the Standard's advices. But at Buda-Pest, the head waters of navigation on the Danube, the movements which the governments might desire to keep secret could hardly be concealed. Neusatz, about twenty-five miles by the river northwest of Belgrade, is where a portion of the Austrian corps of observation is located, and no exigency of commerce on the Danube would require a concentration of tugs and barges at Semlin, nearly opposite Belgrade, on the Danube.

The Tories.

LONDON, March 16.—It is again reported that to save themselves from defeat the Tories will accept the resignation that Sir Richard Webster, the attorney general, placed at the disposal of the government. The attorney general is certainly in bad odor with his party, on account of his espousal of the Times' case, upon which he staked not only his own reputation but that of the government. Lord Salisbury is said to be strongly opposed to throwing overboard the attorney general, but is in favor of the government standing or falling together. He has strong hopes of weathering the present storm, and of preventing a dissolution of parliament.

There are, however, some members of the government who are not so sanguine nor so tender hearted as the premier, and these members, with self-preservation in view, favor the abandoning of Sir Richard Webster to the results of his foolish insistence upon the government committing themselves to the Times' case, and believe that in this way only can the ministry be saved. The Liberals are loudly calling for Sir Richard's dismissal, and since the Gladstonian victory at the Burmley election this demand is more potent.

A great difference is noticeable in the house of commons since the Times' defeat. That event seems to have revolutionized the mood and attitude of parties. The Tories keep themselves very close and make little attempt to answer the roars and cheers that rise from the opposition benches. Mr. Parnell no longer hurries through the lobbies of the house with that terrible haunted look which the experiences of the last two or three years had given to his face, but lingers in the lobby chatting and surrounded by eager friends.

Cases of the Patriotic Leaguers.

PARIS, March 16.—The senate, by a vote of 213 to 58, sanctioned the prosecution of M. Naquet for his connection with the Patriotic league.

In the chamber of deputies M. Arenc, amid noisy interruptions from members of the Right, read the report of the committee which was appointed to consider the charges against M. Laguerre, M. Laisant and M. Turquet. The report favored the prosecution of the accused deputies.

In the course of the debate, the reporter of the committee, referring to the fact that Gen. Boulanger recently dined with the Duchesse Ducus, expressed surprise that men calling themselves Republicans should form a part of the prictorian guard of the Faubourg St. Germain.

Gen. Boulanger rose, and, crossing his arms, defiantly regarded the majority. An uproar ensued, during which Paul de Cassagnac defied the chamber to prosecute Gen. Boulanger. The debate was clotted—318 to 214. The chamber then, by a vote of 334 to 227, authorized the government to prosecute the accused deputies. The sitting was then adjourned. As a result of the heated debate, duel is to be fought between M. Picton and M. Laguerre.

American Girl Make a Successful Debut. PARIS, March 16.—Miss Eames, an American singer, made her debut in opera here Thursday night, appearing as Juliet. She scored a remarkable triumph. The role of Romeo was taken by M. Dercezke. Minister Molane and many members of the American colony were present.

Stabbed His Wife to Death.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A young-colored woman named Cora Hawkins, was stabbed and almost instantly killed Thursday night by her husband, Benjamin Hawkins. The murder is said to have been inspired by jealousy. Hawkins was arrested.

FOUGHT FOR A GIRL.

Rival Lovers in Jefferson County, Ohio, Carve Each Other With Knives.

WHEELING, W. Va., March 16.—Near Industry, Jefferson county, Ohio, about thirty miles north of this city, Samuel Gordon and George Kelley, who have been paying attention to Miss Ella Duck, happened to meet at her house Tuesday night. The two young men soon engaged in a quarrel over the girl, and Gordon proposed to settle the matter with knives. Kelly assented, and the two repaired to the back yard of the Duck residence to see which was the better man, the one coming out of the encounter successful to take the girl. Each provided himself with a knife, and they made a rush at each other without the loss of time. After a few passes Kelley stabbed Gordon in the side, making a very dangerous wound. Kelley is in jail, while Gordon is lying at the Duck residence under the care of physicians.
